Wonders of Mongolia

DAY 01

SINGAPORE > ULAANBAATAR

(Meals on Board)

Assemble at Changi Airport for your flight to Ulaanbaatar, the capital city of Mongolia. Upon arrival in Ulaanbaatar, our friendly local team will be waiting to give you a warm welcome and a smooth transfer to your hotel. Once checked in, you're free to kick back, get comfy, and rest up from the journey—no pressure, no rush. Whether you're catching up on sleep or just soaking in the first sights of the city from your window, today is all about settling in and easing into adventure mode.

Ulaanbaatar City

DAY 02

ULAANBAATAR > KARAKORUM

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

Today offers a unique glimpse into Mongolia's rich cultural heritage with a private Mini-Naadam Festival at the Mongol Nomadic Camp, showcasing the iconic Three Manly Games—wrestling, archery, and horse racing—that have been practiced by Mongolian nomads for centuries. You'll also visit a traditional nomadic home, experience life inside a yurt, and enjoy a taste of authentic Mongolian butter tea. To complete the experience, try your hand at Mongolian archery and dress in traditional clothing for a memorable cultural moment.

Accommodation :

Deluxe Ger Camp at Karakorum / Elsentasarkhai or similar

DAY 03

KARAKORUM > ELSÉN TASARKHAI

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

Begin the day with a visit to Erdenezuu, one of the oldest and most revered Buddhist monasteries in Mongolia, offering a serene window into the country's spiritual roots. Then journey toward Turtle Rock—a striking natural formation shaped entirely by wind and rain into the form of a turtle—set against landscapes so scenic they've earned the nickname "the Switzerland of Mongolia." Enjoy opportunities for hiking, and for the adventurous, horse or camel riding. At the Karakorum Museum, dive into Mongolia's rich past through fascinating artifacts from empires and dynasties that once ruled the land. Continue to Khaadiin Khad Hill for sweeping panoramic views of the Orkhon River Valley, before arriving at Elsen Tasarkhai, a unique stretch of sand dunes known as the "mini Gobi," where camel riding across golden dunes offers a peaceful, unforgettable desert experience.

DAY 04

KARAKORUM > ULAANBAATAR

(Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

Start your day at the National Museum of Mongolia, where an extensive collection divided into archaeology, medieval history, and modern artifacts paints a vivid picture of the nation's fascinating journey through time. Then, make your way to Sukhbaatar Square, the heart of Ulaanbaatar, where grand state ceremonies and cultural events take place—it's also where visiting dignitaries pay tribute to Mongolia's revolutionary hero, Sükhbaatar. As the sun sets, immerse yourself in a traditional folk concert featuring Mongolia's distinctive art forms, a fitting finale to a day filled with culture, history, and national pride.

Accommodation :

DAY 05

ULAANBAATAR > TERELJ NATIONAL PARK

(BREAKFAST / LUNCH / DINNER)

Begin the day with a visit to the Chinggis Khan Statue Complex, home to the world's largest equestrian statue of Genghis Khan—an awe-inspiring tribute to Mongolia's legendary leader. Explore the museum within the complex, then head up to the statue's horse mane for an impressive panoramic view of the vast Mongolian steppe. Later, indulge in a traditional Mongolian lamb barbecue known as Khorkhog, where tender cuts of meat are cooked with vegetables and piping hot stones in a metal pot—a hearty and authentic way to end the day.

Accommodation :

Deluxe Ger Camp at Terelj or similar

Erdene Zuu Monastery

DAY 06

TERELJ NATIONAL PARK > ULAANBAATAR

(Breakfast / Lunch / Dinner)

Today begins with a peaceful walk up the hills to the Ariyapal Meditation Temple, where a 30-minute scenic hike rewards you with stunning views of the surrounding valley and a sense of calm that lingers long after you arrive. Afterwards, visit the historic Rock Turtle sculptures, once guardians of ancient Karakorum's borders and symbols of eternity. These stone turtles, which originally held inscribed stelae on their backs, stand as quiet reminders of the city's deep-rooted past and the enduring spirit of Mongolia.

Accommodation :

Holiday Inn Hotel / Novotel Hotel / Best Western Hotel or similar

Bogd Khaan Palace

DAY 07

ULAANBAATAR

(Breakfast / Lunch / Hotpot Dinner)

Begin your final full day with a visit to Gandan Monastery, known as the "Great Place of Complete Joy," where over 150 monks continue daily rituals in this peaceful spiritual haven. Continue to Zaisan Memorial Hill to honor the memory of Mongolian and Soviet soldiers from World War II, and pass by Buddha Park to admire the impressive 18-metre golden Sakyamuni statue. At the Bogd Khaan Palace, step back in time to explore the former imperial residence of Mongolia's last theocratic ruler. In the afternoon, take a more relaxed pace and explore Ulaanbaatar's vibrant city life—shop for natural skincare at Lhamour, browse luxurious Gobi cashmere at Galleria Ulaanbaatar, and pick up unique handmade souvenirs at the State Department Store. Then, cap off the evening with a comforting meal at The Bull Hot Pot, Mongolia's first and most beloved hot pot restaurant. Whether you're seeking history, shopping, or simply soaking up the city vibe, today's all about enjoying Ulaanbaatar your way.
